

HOBSON CENTENNIAL COOKBOOK

Remember Aunt Ruth's famous sweet rolls? How about the jello salad that Grandma Elsie brought to every family event? The sour cream raisin pie that always was the hit of the pie auction? The tomato salad at the Harvest Dinner? What is Jean's secret to perfect gravy?

Few things bring back memories of times, places and events like food. The Hobson community has had more than their fair share of great cooks! From our grandmothers who made amazing meals three times a day on basic staples to quick and easy recipes that keep us on track every day. We cannot begin to imagine how many potluck events have taken place over the last 100 years in our community!!

The Hobson Centennial Cookbook will be a history/scrapbook of sorts . . . in food! Here is what we would like to include:

- ✓ Current recipes that you enjoy and would like to share.
- ✓ Favorite recipes that bring fond memories of times and events.
- ✓ Heritage recipes passed down from generations or unique recipes from our past.
- ✓ If you have old hand-written recipes that you would like to share from past community members we would like to copy and include them in the book.
- ✓ Pictures of events or people preparing/serving/enjoying food in our community.
- ✓ Memories to be included with specific recipes.
- ✓ Stories of foods you remember, but don't have the recipe for. (We will try to track them down). These could be things like "that casserole that Mrs. Phillips always brought to the church social" or "the cheese fudge that they used to serve at the school at Christmas time".
- ✓ Anything else you think would be appropriate . . .
